ALLIES AND BELGIUM.

A Great and Immediate Duty.

We believe (says the "Daily Chronicle") that King Albert by his visit to Paris last week has brought the associated Powers back to a true perspective in regard to their ultimate obligations. But they have immediate as well as an ultimate duty. It is five months since the armistice was signed, and in the meantime the Belgian people must live. He destroyed the Mars Farm carried off German left hand without the means to live. He destroyed the Mars Farm carried off German left hand without the means to live.

PRESIDENT AND POLAND.

The "Morning Post" says:—It is President Wilson's influence which has been working against the independence of Poland today. And we hope the Americans, who have long been the friends of Poland, will not be misled by the propaganda which is being put forward by the German Government. There can be no free Poland without the independence of Poland.

LORD CURZON'S SPEECH.

The "Daily News" commenting on last night's debate in the House of Lords, says:—Lord Curzon's speech is to be taken as expressing the considered opinion of an experienced statesman on the subject. He has made his points clearly, and has shown that he is not only a great speaker but also a great thinker. He has shown that he is not only a great speaker but also a great thinker.

OUR ENTANGLEMENT IN RUSSIA.

The "Times" says:—The circumstances in Russia are such that it is not possible to see the best we could expect, and it is not possible to see the best we could expect. The circumstances in Russia are such that it is not possible to see the best we could expect, and it is not possible to see the best we could expect.
