ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

KIRBY (Athlone). The brothers and sisters of the late John McGeary Kirby, "An Dun", Battery Brigade, Athlone, wish to thank most sincerely all who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; all who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy; all who attended removal of remains, Mass and funeral. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

SHEANE. The wife and son of the late George Sheane, Carnew, wish to thank so very sincerely all those wonderful friends and neighbours who sympathised with them in their recent great loss, all those who called personally, all those who sent letters, telegrams, Mass cards, sympathy cards, and beautiful floral tributes. A special word of thanks to his men who helped so much, and to the doctors in attendance, Rev. Mr. Shannon and Dowse and all those who attended his funeral. It is quite impossible to thank all individually, and trust that this acknowledgment will be accepted with grateful thanks.

CALLAN — The wife and family of the late Paul Callan, "Ashbury", Torquay Road, Roxrock, thank most sincerely all those who, by their kindness and sympathy, attendance at the funeral and the beautiful flowers were such a help to them in their sorrows.

HUNT — Frederick Hunt, "Frascati", Torca Road, Dalkey, and family wish to express their sincere appreciation of the sympathy shown to them in their recent sad bereavement, by those who sent letters, telegrams and flowers and attended the funeral. A special word of thanks go to the staff of Dromkeen for their courtesy and kindness. Trusting that this will be accepted by all in grateful appreciation as it would be impossible to reply to everyone individually.

LACEY — The brothers and sisters of the late Peter Lacey, 26 Telford Street, Belfast, wish to thank most sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who sent Mass cards and letters of sympathy; those who attended Mass and funeral. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment.

MARTIN — The daughter, son-in-law and relatives of the late Catherine Martin, 56 Clonliffe Road, Dublin, wish to thank all those who sympathised with them in their bereavement; those who sent Mass cards and letters of sympathy, and those who attended the funeral. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

MONAGHAN — The wife and family of the late Patrick Monaghan, Blackwater, Enfield, Co. Meath, wish to thank most sincerely all who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy and who attended the funeral; the kind neighbours and those who helped in many ways. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass has been offered for their intentions.

O'MALLEY — The father, mother, brothers and sisters of the late Michael O'Malley, Junior, Dominick Street, Mullingar, wish to thank most sincerely all the people, organisations, associations, business firms who sympathised with them in their recent tragic bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, telegrams, phone calls, letters of sympathy, wreaths, flowers, messages of sympathy and personal callers; those who attended removal of remains, Masses and funeral. A special word of thanks to the clergy, Christian Brothers, nuns, army chaplain, officers, N.C.O.s and men, the Gardai, doctors, ambulance and hospital staff and those at the lakeside for their heroic efforts to revive him, and for forgetting all our extremely kind neighbours. A Novena of Masses has been offered for their intentions in grateful appreciation.

VAZ — The daughter, brothers, sisters and relations of the late Margaret Vaz, Kilmurray, Cullinville, wish to express their sincere appreciation of those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement and those who kindly sent Mass cards. Holy Mass will be offered for all their intentions.
